MOVIES

SEPT 6 Run the Race

Against the backdrop of high school football and track, two brothers in a small southern town face escalating problems with two different world views straining, but ultimately strengthening the bonds of brotherhood. (produced by Tim Tebow)

SEPT 20 The Best of Enemies

The true story of the unlikely relationship between Ann Atwater, an outspoken civil rights activist and C.P. Ellis, a local Klu Klux Klan leader.

OCT 4 Green Book

A working class Italian American bouncer becomes the driver of an African American classical pianist on a tour of venues through the 1960's American south.

Best picture of 2018 and true story.

The movies shown in the Film Series may be borrowed for two weeks for home use after group presentations.

Our Mission

Theaters are modern day pulpits; people flock to their local multiplex to let directors and screenwriters influence how they feel, think, and act. As image-bearers of God we in turn have a yearning to both create and be entertained by stories. Holistic lessons are often learned more effectively through narrative than with bullet-point outlines and graphs.

Christians should enjoy and engage film not just as entertainment, but also to engage culture, and reflect on how it relates to the gospel.

OCT 18 On the Basis of Sex

Inspiring and spirited true story that follows young lawyer Ruth Bader Ginsburg as she teams with her husband Marty to bring a ground breaking case before the US Court of Appeals and overturn a century of gender discrimination.

NOV 1 The Upside

A comedic look at the relationship between a wealthy paralyzed man and an unemployed man with a criminal record who's hired to help him.

NOV 8 Stan and Ollie

Laurel and Hardy, the world's famous comedy duo attempt to reignite their film careers as they embark on what becomes their swan song.
